

Existing materials mainly for RIOs

	Continent/ Country	Name of the institution, source	Type of training/training methods	Target groups	Time frame	Case-studies	Accessibility	Notes/Comments
II. Recommended Online Training Materials
1	USA	ORI resources (https://ori.hhs.gov/)	The webpages offer materials and resources on various issues of RI (in US context). The interactive games The Lab and The Research Clinic	Research integrity officers	Cannot be identified	The pages also contain a good sample of cases in which administrative actions were imposed due to findings of research misconduct.	Free of charge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Broad variety of topics and cases • Interactive games and videos • Cases are partly related to US context and may have limited applicability in other contexts.
2.	Europe	The European Network of Research Integrity Offices (ENRIO) resource library (http://www.enrio.eu/resources/)			Can not be identified	Case studies in European context	Free of charge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case studies in European context
3.	UK	UK Research Integrity Office (http://ukrio.org/)	Materials and guidelines mainly in UK context			Useful case-study packs	Free of charge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Useful case-study packs • No other training resources freely available

1

4.	German	German Research Foundation (http://www.ombudsman-fuer-die-wissenschaft.de/curriculum/)	This curriculum can be used for classes on good research practice at universities and research institutions, in Research Training Groups and within structured doctoral training.				Free of charge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A whole curriculum • Language: in German mostly
5.	Europe	RRI Toolkit (https://www.rri-tools.eu)	The resources training page gathers the complete package of materials for the RRI Tools training program.	Research community, policy makers, R&D industries and businesses, civil society organizations, and the education community	Individual modules from 40 to 90 mins each, and exercises up to 90 mins each.		Free of charge; registration is needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provides a useful sample of resources and materials • Does not contain on-line training programme
6.	USA	National Postdoctoral Association RCR-Toolkit (http://www.nationalpostdoc.org/?RCR_toolkit)	Toolkit provides advice on developing responsible conduct of research (RCR) programming for postdocs. It is intended for those developing	Mainly for post-docs but may also prove useful for individuals seeking information on RCR topics.	Cannot be identified		Free of charge; registration is needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Target group is mainly post docs and may thus have limited applicability for the present target groups (RECs, RIOs) programs, but may also prove useful for individuals seeking information on RCR topics.

III. Recommended on site-programs
1.	Finland	Open Learning Research Ethics	This is the open learning space for Research Ethics. Allows to access all the material, but not complete any of the assessment tasks or gain any credits.	Students			Registration needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Useful introductory material • Reflective activities on each topic • Target group is mainly students and may thus have limited applicability for the present target groups (RECs, RIOs)